Numb. 3235

MONDAY, JULY 16, 1744.

Rome, June 27.

ON the 19th the Marquis Colloredo, by Directions from the Pope, made Application to Prince Lobkowitz for a Ceſſation of Arms for a few Days, in order to bury the Bodies of the Soldiers killed in the late Action at Veletri, which, from the 16th to the 19th, remained unburied. Two Officers were ...dingly appointed from each Army to attend upon ... Occaſion, and the Country People of Veletri and ...no buried them.

...rence, June 30. The Armies in the Neighbourhood of Rome remain in the ſame Situation, though ...ent Skirmiſhes happen between the Detachments ...ch. Prince Lobkowitz has not been able to re... the Poſts he loſt ſome little Time ago. The De... continues very conſiderable from the Spaniſh and ...olitan Armies. The Heats are grown very great all ...taly, and are particularly dangerous in the Neighbourhood of Rome. General Peſtaluzzi, who, in the Action at Veletri was made Priſoner of War, has ...releaſed on his Parole, and is now at Rome on his ...to Vienna. Some of the principal People of Abruzzo ...g ſent a Deputation to Prince Lobkowitz, to de... him to ſend more Troops thither, aſſuring him that ...e Provinces would riſe in Favour of the Queen, he ...hereupon detached one Battalion of Vaſquez's Re..., and a ſmall Party of other Troops, into thoſe ... Admiral Matthews continues with his Fleet off ...o Bay.

Extract of a Private Letter from Franckfort.

'The News of Prince Charles of Lorrain paſſing the ...ine in ſo aſtoniſhing a Manner, without Loſs, may ...thout Oppoſition, amazes the Imperial Court pro...ioufly. Indeed there is good Reaſon. We ſee ...inly, that though many of the Princes and States of ...e Empire have infinite Reſpect for his Imperial Ma..., yet they are not much inclined to riſque their ...oops, and their Dominions, in his Quarrel; eſpe...ly as this is a Quarrel of his own, in which the ...pire has not the leaſt Concern. Yet, in all proba..., had not this great Event happen'd, his Army ...uld have been ſpeedily augmented by ſome Thou... of Auxiliaries, drawn indeed by their Reſpect for ...e Prince, but paid by France and Spain. All ſuch ...pectations are now over; and even the Heſſians, it ...currently reported here, will ſoon take an Oppor...ny to declare themſelves neutral Troops, and to re... Home, in order to repair the Loſs which they ...e already ſuſtained.

'Before we had this News, moſt of our Courtiers ...re our of Humour at the ſurprizing Intelligence ...m Moſcow, of the Diſgrace of the M. de la Che...ie. His Imperial Majeſty did not credit it at firſt, ...the Count de Baviere communicated to him the ...arina's Order for expelling that Nobleman her Ca...al and Dominions. His Majeſty then ſaid, This Gen...man has pull'd his own Ruin on his own Head, by ...deavouring to remove ſuch, as had Intereſt ſufficient ...remove him. M. de Baviere added, I find publick ...affairs are very unhappy there; to Day 'tis Chetar...'s, Yeſterday it was the Marquis de Botta's, and ...o-morrow it may be ſomebodies Turn elſe. The ...de Laumarie, Miniſter from his moſt Chriſtian Ma...ty at Stockholm, is like to ſhare in Chetardie's Diſ...ace; the Letters which have given moſt Offence, be... written by the latter to the former.

'All the Expreſſes from his Excellency Count Seckendorff, acknowledge his being ill ſeconded by the French, who ſhelter'd themſelves continually behind the Imperialiſts. He ſpeaks, however, very reſpectfully of M. de Coigni. The greateſt Coward could not be more circumſpect than this General is in regard to his Troops, and yet no young Volunteer more chearfully hazards his Perſon than the Marſhal, in Time of Action, ſays he, in his laſt Diſpatch. We attribute this unuſual bad Behaviour in the French, to their being moſt Part of them raw Troops, that are ſerving, as it were, an Apprenticeſhip to War; ſo that we hope time will bring them better to underſtand their Buſineſs. His Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter has actually demanded the Inveſtiture of the Principality of Eaſt Friezland for his Maſter; and there is no Queſtion made here of his receiving it.'

Dr. ROBERT EATON's BALSAMICK STYPTICK,

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury-Court Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, Spitting or vomiting of Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Menses; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting the Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Treatise, Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers EATON's STYPTICK to Hellebore, other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows: ——'Every 'knows the agglutinating Quality of sweet Blood, and 'prehend it is to this, that EATON's Styptick owes its 'mild, soldering Efficacy.——It is more mild, 'and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more 'to patch a Hole, or glew up a Rupture, or to give a 'to the acrid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Patient 'says, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great 'and Candor, who has great Opportunities of dealing in 'Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery. See p. 182.'

The RHEUMATISM,

WITH which so many Persons are most grievously afflicted, and for which, various Methods of Bleeding, Purging, Blistering, Sweating, &c. have been undergone, and abundance of nauseous Medicines been taken, without Effect, may yet be safely and perfectly cured in a few Days, by the only true chymical Specifick, the Great Anti-Rheumatick Elixir, which occasions no Confinement, nor gives any Trouble, but is agreeable to take, a few Drops only for a Dose, cordial to the Stomach, and strengthening to the Nerves; eminently reviving and increasing the Spirits, enlivening all the Animal Faculties, and by attenuating the Blood and Juices, restoring a regular Circulation thro' the minutest Canals, and freeing them from obstructing Viscidities, takes off all Manner of Pain almost on the first, and pleasantly and most certainly cures the most tormenting Rheumatism, and all Rheumatick Pains in the Limbs, &c. whether fix'd or wandering, in a most surprizing Manner, without the least Fatigue or Disorder. What is here said of this Great Medicine, is no Quack-Romance, but literally and strictly true, as vast Numbers have experienced, and of which any one may be satisfied at the Place where only it is to be had, namely, at the Gentlewoman's at the Sign of the Cross, over-against the Church in Coleman-street, near Cheapside, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, seal'd up with Printed Directions at large.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cures HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as removing the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Vast Train of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and hence they Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities, Flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, Heart-sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, with Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, Unquiet Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Anxiety, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, the innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, this much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, promoting the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and of that good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the first, and many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, as evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Hypo-Drops which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crown and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.
